LAWS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their publication, all arrearages must be paid unless at the option of the editor. Persons wishing to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrearages, is sent to the publisher.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The following named persons are announced as candidates for the office specified below, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention:

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.
—HARRY D. WHEELER, of Delmar.
C. H. TERMAINE, of Lawrenceville.
C. H. DEWITT, Mansfield, Pa.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention of Pennsylvania will assemble at the Academy of Music, in the city of Scranton, at 10 o'clock A. M. on WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 1890, to nominate candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of Internal Affairs. The convention will consist of representatives in proportion to the whole vote cast for the party from the several districts, one for each 1,000 Democratic votes cast at the last preceding Gubernatorial election, or for a fraction of 1,000 such votes amounting to 500 or more in the respective representative districts, provided that each representative district shall have at least one delegate.

ELLIOTT P. KISNER,
Chairman State Democratic Committee.

LAST Monday a State election was held in Oregon for Governor, State officers, members of Congress and a Legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Mitchell. Governor Pennoyer, Democrat, was re-elected and the Republicans elect their member of Congress and have a majority in the Legislature. The State is naturally Republican.

SOME of the Republican organs whose chief mission is protecting monopolies, are deprecating the Senate's delay in taking decided and definite action on the McKinley bill. They claim that it is giving "the Democratic organs an opportunity to keep up the tariff agitation." The McKinley bill might pass the Senate tomorrow to become operative immediately, and yet it would fail to put an end to tariff agitation. This will not cease until the people win in an honest fight for tariff reform. It will not cease while the toilers of the United States are taxed to support the many infamous monopolies with which this country is cursed.

AN amendment to the Penal Code of New York, recently signed by Governor Hill, and which goes into effect on September 1st, is as follows: "No child, actually or apparently under sixteen years of age, shall smoke or in any way use any cigar, cigarette or tobacco in any form whatsoever, in any public street, place or resort. A violation of this subdivision shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars and not less than two dollars, for each offense." This is getting at the cigarette evil in the proper style. The action of the Empire State should be followed by Pennsylvania. The cigarette-smoking youngster is getting to be an intolerable nuisance.

DELAMATER seems still to have the hoodoo for Governor, but many Republican votes will be lost if that is the case. With Hastings, Stone, Montooth or Davies, the Republicans can win with their old time majority, but the risk with Delamater is too great.—Troy Gazette. We wish we could please our Republican contemporary by saying that we believe Mr. Delamater will be defeated in the State Convention, but we cannot. It is evidently a live or die game with Quay, and he is determined to have Delamater nominated. For the benefit of the Gazette we will say that we concur in the opinion that the nomination of Delamater will cost the Republican party many votes, and result in the election of a Democratic Governor.

A PROMINENT Republican organ announced the other day in a leading editorial that free wool was near at hand. This was said to be one of the benefits which would follow the passage of the McKinley bill. This will greatly interest [illegible] that the first freight train free [illegible] a tariff [illegible] who [illegible] be li[illegible] plea[illegible] he i[illegible] pur[illegible] art[illegible] ton[illegible] not [illegible] the

He says there are in the country 200 Democratic papers with an aggregate circulation of [illegible],000, and only 295 Republican papers with [illegible],000 circulation. Of the weeklies 7,340 are Democratic and 5,000 Republican. The monthlies Democratic, the latter 500,000 copies, while the Republican monthlies find sale for but 100,000. A fair estimate from these figures, covering the whole field, would give a total circulation of about 8,500,000 Democratic and about 2,000,000 Republican publications.

A MUGWUMP men's meeting for the purpose of protesting against the passage of the McKinley tariff bill was held at Phi[illegible]delphia last Tuesday afternoon. [illegible]. McClure presided and a [illegible] of [illegible] was [illegible] The building was crowded, the [illegible] within [illegible] Carnegie Hall of Mugwumpdom. The meeting [illegible] by Mugwump Pollock, of Philadelphia, who [illegible] by saying that he was glad to see so many present, and that he was [illegible] to see so many Democrats present. [illegible] by stating that the meeting was [illegible] Democratic, but was [illegible] Mugwump meeting. A few [illegible] were then made by [illegible] against it, the majority favored free raw materials [illegible] duty on coal. In commenting on the [illegible] views, the paper says this wholesale denunciation of the McKinley bill [illegible] the rank and file of [illegible] Republican party in Iowa is no longer ready to follow blindly in the lead of the scheming politicians at Washington. It concludes by saying that the gist of the one hundred interviews is that the bill is not the tariff reform measure the Republican party promised to pass, but on the contrary is a juggling and iniquitous one. By the way, this is Mr Henderson's State, and that gentleman, it will be remembered, warmly opposed that clause in the McKinley bill which increased the duty on lamp shades and chimneys from 45 to 110 per cent.

THE Indianapolis Journal, the home organ of President Harrison, has joined with the Chicago Tribune, Minneapolis Press, and other influential Republican papers of the West and Northwest, in protesting against the further increase of taxes on the necessaries of life. In commenting on the political situation in Iowa, it says "Iowa is certainly not 'hot for a high tariff' by any means. Neither are Minnesota, North and South Dakota. If a close canvass were made of even the Middle States the high tariff contingent would be found weakening. The change is becoming more apparent daily. Not only Senator Allison, but many other leading Republicans, with clearer vision than McKinley, read the unmistakable signs of the times and are acting accordingly." Notwithstanding the frankness of papers of this class, the hide-bound monopoly protecting organs in the East are still deceiving their readers by withholding the truth. They realize, if their readers do not, that a prohibitory tariff and the Republican party are doomed.

REPUBLICANS themselves do not believe the statement that the home market is sufficient for the agricultural interests of the country. In 1890 it is foreign commerce that keeps the American farmer alive. A sudden and complete cessation of the European demand for our breadstuffs and provisions would ruin all the farmers of the Northern States. This was not the case in the time of Clay. He based his argument for a tariff against European manufacturers on the ground that there was practically no European demand for our breadstuffs, on account of their adverse tariffs, and that the European demand for our cotton and tobacco had reached its maximum. What a revolution has occurred since then! Last year this country exported to Europe, and chiefly to England, agricultural products amounting to $521,759,914. Hence it is not extravagant to quote the result of a statician's work, and say that this foreign commerce means $125 a year to every farmer's family in the United States. But pass a prohibitory tariff bill and this trade will cease, for the reason that other nations will not trade with us if we do not purchase of them.

ANYHOW all is it not well to let well enough alone? Why should this government change from protection to free trade when the country prospers so much under protection?—Monopoly Organ. Yes, this country is just boiling over with prosperity. Don't disturb it, keep right along manufacturing tramps and adding to the list of millionaires. Without a ship on the ocean, without a chance for a person of moderate means to make a living in business, with sugar trusts, coal pools, railroad pools, strikes, lockouts, pluck-me stores, store orders, Pinkerton thugs, horse-flesh-eating miners, corn-burning farmers, bankrupt merchants, land-grabbing syndicates, immigrant scares, orations, Knights of Labor, knights of rest, trades' unions, trades' disunionists, Georgeism, socialism, anarchism, farmers' alliances, nationalism and other forms of discontent and law-made inequality as the outgrowth of tariff protection—don't touch it! Let it alone. It's sacred.—Harrisburg Patriot. The Patriot does not overdraw the picture—it simply presents the plain facts. It isn't a pleasing state of affairs, even if the deluded Republicans did vote for a continuation of the same at the last alleged Presidential election. A different picture can and will be painted with the brush of tariff reform in the hands of honest men.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Matters and Things of Interest Happening at the Nation's Capital.

Senators Sherman and Allison are at loggerheads over the crazy-quilt hodge-podge known as the McKinley tariff bill, and Senator Allison is reported to be preparing a speech to be delivered against the bill on the floor of the Senate, should he fail, as now seems probable, to carry his point in the Finance Committee. In fact the waters seem to have got the [illegible] of the makers, certainly [illegible] are concerned [illegible] are [illegible] taxation [illegible] transfers [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
